

should contain: (a) A statement that the announcement is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the securities and that the offer may be made only by an offering circular, (b) the names and addresses of the bank and the lead underwriter, (c) the title of the security, the dollar amount and the number of securities being offered, and the per unit offering price to the public, (d) instructions for obtaining an offering circular and (e) a statement that the securities are neither insured nor approved by the FDIC.

The FDIC uses the Office of Thrift Supervision's conversion regulations as a frame of reference in reviewing the form and content of offering circulars used in connection with mutual-to-stock conversions. Banks utilizing an offering circular in connection with a mutual-to-stock conversion should consult 12 CFR 563b.102 (Form OC—Offering Circular).

The disclosure goals of this statement of policy will be met if:

(A) The offer and sale satisfy the information and disclosure requirements of SEC Regulation A—Conditional Small Issues Exemption (17 CFR part 230), or Regulation S—B (Small Business Issuers) (17 CFR part 228), or

(B) The securities are offered and sold in a transaction that satisfies the requirements of SEC Regulation D (17 CFR 230.501–230.506), relating to private offers and/or sales to accredited investors, or

(C) The securities are offered and sold in a transaction that satisfies the informational requirements of SEC Rule 701 (17 CFR 230.701) for certain employee benefit plans, or

(D) The securities are offered and sold in a transaction that satisfies the information and disclosure requirements of OTS's part 563g—Securities Offerings (12 CFR 563g).

Inasmuch as the statement of policy does not impose the burden of filing and awaiting regulatory approval, and allows for certain flexibility, the FDIC believes it will be beneficial to small banks.

Banks or their legal counsel may contact the FDIC's Registration and Disclosure Section, Division of Supervision, for a copy of Suggested Form and Content for Offering Circular (Existing Bank) or Suggested Form and Content for Offering Circular (Bank in Organization). The address is Registration and Disclosure Section, Division of Supervision, 550 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20429. (202) 898-8902.

By order of the Board of Directors, dated at Washington, DC, this 13th day of August, 1996.

I have determined that the damage in certain areas of the State of Iowa, resulting from severe storms and flooding on June 15-30, 1996, is of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant a major disaster declaration under the Robert T.
